

Dr Vishal Goyal

Qualification: M.B.B.S., Master's in Health-care Management

Dr Vishal comes with 14 years of experience into managing hospitals with different business models, cultures and geography. With in-depth understanding of operative functions and delicacy of issues in a health care setup, he has been a key resource in transforming organizations that he has been associated with. He is focussed on creating systems driven environment and has also driven implementation of HIS. He has also been associated with hospital projects, and has expertise in Medical equipment planning, procurement and commissioning.

He aims at playing a crucial role in establishing Beams with the concept of Ambulatory Surgery Centre new to Indian market.